Dobrev & Lyutskanov Law Firm Is Member of World Leading Legal Network

Dobrev & Lyutskanov Law Firm is part of one of the world's leading global networks according to the latest edition of Chambers & Partners Global Guide for Clients. After extensive research with businesses, Mackrell International has been placed in the category for leading firms both globally and in Latin America.

Dobrev & Lyutskanov Law Firm joined Mackrell International in 2010 to provide clients with a high quality global legal service. Mackrell International has 90 members representing a total of 4,500 lawyers working in 60 countries. In the last 12 months the network has strengthened its US coverage by expansion into new states, signed up new members from China and India and re-launched its practice group offer to meet client demand.

Roumen Lyutskanov, Partner said: "Our clients are trading on a world stage and to look after them we need to be able to call on legal expertise across the globe. Belonging to Mackrell International means we can do exactly that knowing our clients are in the best possible hands."

Clive Mieville, managing director of Mackrell International, said; "A ranking in the Chambers directory is highly sought after and hard-won so we are thrilled to be included again. It's an achievement that reflects the work and commitment to quality of all our member firms."

CR legal DL 2018. Всички права запазени.