Katerina Gramatikova, attorney-at-law delivered a lecture on the topical issues in the implementation of the Public Procurement Act

Katerina Gramatikova, attorney-at-law was invited to deliver a lecture in the seminar on the topical issues in the implementation of the Public Procurement Act, which was held on 9 December 2014. The seminar was organized by the Krustyo Tsonchev Training Centre for Lawyers Foundation whose main objective is to promote the development of an independent and professional bar and to foster the European self-awareness of practicing lawyers through training and upgrading of their qualifications.

The seminar focused on topical practical issues related to the implementation of the Public Procurement Act and on the analysis of the case law of the Competition Protection Commission and the Supreme Administrative Court in the application of some controversial provisions of the law. The event was attended by lawyers from the Sofia Bar Association who shared their experience with the bottlenecks in the implementation of the law, which they had to cope with when they advised clients in that branch of law.
