Attorney-at-Law Lyuben Todev Participated in the Academic Readings on the Topic of Predictability of Law, organized by the Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski

On 13.05.2021 were held Ha 13.05.2021 г. Academic Readings on the Topic of Predictability of Law, organized by the departments of History and theory of the state and of Criminal Law Studies at the Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski. Attorney-at-Law Lyuben Todev participated in the readings by presenting a report on the topic of Technological Neutrality as Guarantee for the Predictability of Law. Within the report the attention is focused on the principle of technological neutrality, which has been explicitly formulated in EU law, its correlation with other principles of law and its significance in the legal system.

You can find the text of the report here.

CR legal DL 2018. Всички права запазени.